Dear Mr. Allen:

This letter acknowledges receipt of your Privacy Act/Freedom of Information Act (PA/FOIA) request, dated October 17, 2026, and received by the U.S. Army Special Operations Command (USASOC) on October 19, 2026. You request access to all records pertaining to yourself maintained in any system of records relating to Financial Liability Investigation of Property Loss (FLIPL) Number WH0YFF-19-7SFG-4-104. Specifically, you requested the following records.

You request a complete copy of the Financial Liability Investigation of Property Loss (FLIPL), No. WH0YFF-19-7SFG-4-104, including all associated records and supporting documentation. Specifically, you seek the DD Form 200, Financial Liability Investigation of Property Loss, including all pages and all entries in Blocks 1 through 16; the DA Form 7531, or equivalent FLIPL checklist or tracking document; and all exhibits associated with the investigation, including Exhibit A, the Memorandum for Record titled "Letter of Lateness," dated April 26, 2019. You also request the appointing authority's memorandum appointing the investigation and designating the approving authority; any memorandum appointing a Financial Liability Officer; all correspondence between the command and you concerning the FLIPL, including the memorandum dated May 15, 2019, and any related acknowledgment documents; the final findings, recommendations, and determination, including the basis for the determination that the investigation was unfounded; any records, memoranda, notes, or emails documenting the battalion Judge Advocate's telephonic notification of the unfounded determination; and any legal reviews conducted by the servicing Staff Judge Advocate or Judge Advocate.

In addition, you request copies of the 2nd Quarter Fiscal Year 2019 Central Issue Facility (CIF) Organizational Clothing and Individual Equipment (OCIE) reconciliation records that resulted in the reported discovery of loss on April 3, 2019; records documenting the search of the TA-50 locker rooms referenced in the April 26, 2019 "Letter of Lateness"; and any documentation concerning the establishment, assessment, referral, or collection of financial liability or debt arising from this FLIPL, including any referral to the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) or any federal debt collection or offset program. Finally, you request any other records pertaining to you that are related to FLIPL No. WH0YFF-19-7SFG-4-104 and are not otherwise specifically identified above.

This request will be processed under FOIA case number, U.S. Army Special Operations Command FOIA Case #27-043. Your request will be processed in accordance with the procedural requirements of Army Regulation 25-55, Department of the Army Freedom of Information Act Program. Based on general fairness to the public, the FOIA establishes a queuing concept, first in, first out, on an easy-hard basis, and controlled in response queues. It is likely that processing your request may exceed the statutory 20-working-days requirement. The current estimated date of completion is February 26, 2027.

If you have any questions or concerns, you may contact me at (910) 432-9233 or stephanie.l.osborne.civ@socom.mil.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Osborne
